

What is School Site Council?

What is School Site Council?

What is School Site Council?

- School Site Council is a group of people who work together to help improve the school.
- Members include parents, teachers, and community members.
- The council meets regularly to discuss school issues and make recommendations.
- Parents can serve on the council to help with school improvement.

Why Serve on the School Site Council?

Parents can help improve the school by serving on the School Site Council.

- Parents can help with school improvement.
- Parents can help with school issues.
- Parents can help with school decisions.

More Information:

For more information, visit the School Site Council website.

How Can Parents Get Involved?

Parents can get involved in many ways:

- Attend school meetings.
- Help with homework.
- Volunteer at school events.
- Serve on the School Site Council.

